

February 2019 From the desk of Steve Herner

He's got the whole world in His hands. So the words from a well known song tell us. And we can express this confidence in Him by praising God in our happy moments; seeking God in our difficult moments; worshipping God in our quiet moments; trusting God in our painful moments; and thanking God every moment.

A Stephen Minister is committed to living out Christ's calling by providing one-on-one Christian care and companionship to individuals dealing with the issues of life. Do you or someone you know need someone who cares; someone who listens; someone who keeps all you share confidential; someone to help you move through an issue of life? This need can be filled by a Stephen Minister.

Are you or that someone lonely; discouraged; grieving; dealing with job loss; dealing with relationship strains; coping with illness; coping with retirement; in a crisis of spirituality; an empty nester; the list can go on but the bottom line is facing any issue of life can benefit by the one-on-one care of a Stephen Minister.

A Stephen Minister can help you to remember that "He has you and me sister in His hands...He has the whole world in His hands!!!! And you will benefit by His holding you in His hands.
